PASTORAL COMMITTEE The Pastoral Committee is an important part of our Benefice; its objective is to minister to all who have been sick, in hospital, or bereaved. Usually, a card and flowers (or a plant) are sent on behalf of everyone in our churches. Members visit up to twenty people at Easter and Christmas - visits which are much appreciated. Currently, Committee members are bearing the cost of this ministry themselves. This notice is therefore asking for donations (which should be given to Margaret or Carole) so that the costs associated with this important ministry are adequately covered in future. Thank you in anticipation of your generosity.

VICAR'S LETTER

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ

As the Summer school holidays begin, I am certain that you are planning to go to different places for rest. It is important to refresh and re-energise ourselves from time to time. When Jesus saw how tired his disciples were after a missionary trip, he said to them, 'Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while. (Mark 6:31). Two important things to remember here are; they went away with Jesus and to a quiet place. So, as you set time aside to rest do not forget to take Jesus with you. I pray that you will feel refreshed and renewed from your time of rest.

Rev. Jairo Nyaongo
