HELP REQUIRED – BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE As I will now no longer be dealing with entries into the Book of Remembrance, someone is needed to take on this task. If you are interested and would like further information, please see me.

CHURCH CLEANING ROTA I would like to put together a rota of people who could help to clean the church regularly. This would ensure that the sweeping, dusting, and other house-keeping jobs will not need to be carried out by the vicar, as is happening at present. If enough people volunteer, it might be half an hour or so every few weeks. Please come and see me after the service if you feel you can help.

Angela

MAGAZINE The Easter edition of the Parish Magazine is now ready to be delivered. We are extremely short of people who are able to deliver it, so please have a look and see if you or any family members could help out. The magazines will be in bundles at the back of church.

VICAR'S LETTER

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We come together to mark the beginning of Holy Week with the Palm Sunday celebrations. We process from the parish hall into the church to commemorate Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem and to welcome him by faith into our lives. Although Jesus' entry into Jerusalem was joyful it also foreshadowed his suffering, crucifixion, death, and resurrection. We praise God with palm crosses in our hands to symbolise victory over sin.

Heavenly Father, who anointed your Son Jesus Christ with the Holy Spirit and with power to bring to the world the blessings of your kingdom: anoint your Church with the same Holy Spirit, that we who share in his suffering and his victory may bear witness to the gospel of salvation; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Rev'd Jairo Nyaongo
